Into the Burrow Post-show Questions

Encourage them to recall information about the plot and story:

- What was the problem that Peter encountered, and how did he solve the problem?
- How did the characters react when Mr. McGregor said they had to leave their home?
- How did the characters' actions impact their environment (and habitat)?
- What is the central message of the play? What did the playwright want audiences to learn? How will you share the central message from the play?

Prompt them to make personal connections to the story:

- In what ways could you relate to Peter?
- What was your favorite moment in the play? Why?
- Many characters reveal their strengths, such as Jeremy Fisher with swimming and Pricklepin with tap-dancing. What is a secret skill that you have, and how could it be helpful to your friends?
- In the play, Peter and his friends sing about the importance of sharing and caring for the land. What does land mean to you? Do you have a favorite park or outdoor space that is meaningful to you?

Introduce them to theater concepts:

- How did the technical elements of the play (costumes, lighting, sound, etc.) help tell the story?
- The play used music to entertain the audience. What was your favorite song, and why?
- How did the actors transform into their animal characters? How did they use the Tools of the Actor (body, voice, imagination, concentration)?
- How did you know when the setting of the play changed? How did the sound or lighting change?

Expand their creativity:

- Make a prediction: What happens to Peter and his friends on his next birthday?
